If you have tried to learn more about the diversity and histories of Gypsy, Roma and Traveller communities, you wouldn’t be alone in finding that there’s just not much out there.

Roma and Sinti people, sometimes called the ‘forgotten victims’ of the Holocaust were deported to concentration camps, subject to murder and horrific medical experimentation by Nazi soldiers.

Over 200,000 Roma and Sinti were murdered as a result of starvation or disease.

Irish people began to split from the general population around 12 generations ago in the 1600s - “an lucht siúil” (the walking people) became known for storytelling and sharing songs from city to city.
